

FORWARD FEATURES 2021

JANUARY

CAREERS

(Multimedia: webinar / podcast for Sea to City)

- 'New year better career': How to stand out from the crowd when job seeking.
- Recruitment tips and tricks.
- Finding a job on shore: Nautilus Sea to City initiative pairs London City mentors with seafarers looking to move ashore.
- Crew benchmarking: Rate of pay for jobs at sea.
- End of career/retirement - pensions, staying on as a Nautilus member.

APRIL

TRAINING

(Multimedia: podcast)

- What is the 'new normal'?
- Online vs offline (or blended) - especially relevant during and post pandemic.
- Future tech: What's next for simulation training?
- College focus: How to stand out from the crowd.
- Mid-career training: What can non-traditional / online training provide?
- Fair Workplaces campaign: Maritime Labour Convention amendments.

FEBRUARY

MONEY

(Multimedia: webinar)

International Women's Day

- Tax: Spotlight on Seafarers' Earnings Deductions (SEDs) and Covid.
- Accounting: What to look for in an accountant.
- Financial planning: How to ensure your finances are in order.
- Fair pay campaign.

MAY

HEALTH & SAFETY AND MENTAL HEALTH

(Multimedia: webinar)

UK Mental Health Week

- Safety first: The latest vessel safety procedures and equipment.
- Connectivity at sea: Wellbeing boost or bust?
- Holistic wellbeing: Food and fitness.
- How to get help: What mental health services are available (corporate vs charitable).
- Fair Workplaces and Fair Pay campaign: Gender pay gap reporting.

MARCH

ENERGY/OFFSHORE

(Multimedia: webinar)

- The new face of offshore: Moving away from O&G, pumping carbon under the North Sea.
- Opportunities in renewables: What prospects for seafaring jobs?
- UK Windfarm investment: £160m ports and infrastructure investment for windfarms. Where is this investment going? And what does it mean for maritime jobs?
- UK immigration rule changes: What does the 'Australian-style' points system mean for seafarers?

JUNE

STATE OF THE INDUSTRY REPORT

(Podcast: 10-year survey)

International Day of the Seafarer

- Overview and top line results of the Nautilus International 10-year member survey: Tech; Training; Safety; Jobs; Skills, etc.
- Life at sea: What its really like from the eyes of the seafarers.
- Sector focus: Yachts, offshore, cargo, merchant navy.
- STCW safety tech training certificate.

FORWARD FEATURES

2021

JULY

AUTOMATION AND TECHNOLOGY

- State of play: Has automation been accelerated by Covid? Was its impact ignored because of the crisis?
- Framework: IMO regulatory framework for autonomous ships.
- The future of fuel and propulsion: Electric vessels, LNG, LPG, Methane, etc. What skills will seafarers need to crew these ships?
- Cyber security: Latest risks and how seafarers can stay safe.
- Simulators/training tech.

OCTOBER

ENVIRONMENT

London International Shipping Week (LISW)

- LISW: 'Sustainable shipping for a sustainable environment'.
- Green equipment: What is it? What new skills are needed to use it?
- Focus on fuels: hydrogen/LNG.
- Marine environment protection: Decarbonisation, sulphur cap, ballast water management.
- Renewables: Offshore wind.
- North Sea: Carbon capture.
- Sea to City initiative launch.
- Fair Access and Fair Workplaces campaign.

AUGUST

SUPERYACHTS

(Podcast: How to make it in Superyachts)

Monaco Yacht Show / Fort Lauderdale Yacht Show

- Top tips on bagging that perfect Yacht job: from the experts.
- Nautilus Yacht Service Record Book.
- In-career training: Moving up the ranks.
- Safety and security: What you need to know.
- Mental health and awareness: What to look out for and where to find help.
- Fair Pay and Fair Workplaces campaign.

NOVEMBER

PASSENGER SHIPS (FERRIES & CRUISE)

- State of the cruise industry: What does the post-pandemic cruise industry look like?
- Expedition cruises: Is smaller smarter in a post-Covid world?
- Ferries focus: Has state intervention worked?
- Inland waterways: Can the environmental benefits bring back waterways transport?

SEPTEMBER

CHARITIES

World Maritime Day

- Maritime Charities Group: What it is, recent campaigns.
- Nautilus Welfare Fund: Mariners' Park.
- NWF caseworkers: Help in your home.
- Campaigns: Wooley hat day; Suicide prevention; Christmas boxes; Connectivity and mental health.
- Focus on Seafarers' centres: Support, advice and assistance.
- Nautilus book shop: Sending books to boats.
- Dutch approaches to welfare.
- Fair Access and Fair Society campaign.

DECEMBER

YEAR IN REVIEW

- What happened this year: Brexit, Covid.
- Cartoon strip 2021.
- Biggest news stories of the year.
- Look ahead to 2022: what regulations are coming into force?
- Fair Access campaign: Maritime Skills Commission reporting.