Uniting maritime professionals

Cadet, student & trainee application form

Wherever you are, so are we

Nautilus International is there for you

Support at college

We want to make sure you get the right support to complete your course — whether that means support at college, at sea, or day-to-day living — that's why we have a dedicated staff member to help cadet members.

You can get in touch with us any time by phone and email — ymp@nautilusint.org, or meet up with our cadet team on one of their regular visits to your college.

We also keep an eye on what you're studying. As a member of the Merchant Navy Training Board, the Union helped to put together the syllabus you study, and we continue to monitor officer training courses for quality and relevance to the industry.

Workplace support

Nautilus International industrial organisers provide expert advice on work-related problems such as contracts, redundancy, bullying or discrimination, non-payment of wages, and pensions. Every year our organisers handle hundreds of personal cases and can often give you the advice you need before an issue becomes a problem.

Safety and welfare

Nautilus International plays a vital role in national and international discussions on such key issues as hours of work, crewing levels, shipboard conditions, vessel design, and technical and training standards.

Benefits

With the maritime profession under increasing risk of criminalisation, Nautilus Legal offers members an extensive range of legal services provided by specialist lawyers in nearly 60 jurisdictions.

Nautilus has arranged specially negotiated rates on services seafarers use all the time, including insurance for your personal items while at sea. Visit our website to sign up.

In touch

As a Nautilus International member, help is never far away — wherever you are.

- Bulletins are sent out giving specific updates about your company (if it has a Union agreement).
- We also organise college network meetings to discuss issues with cadets in your area.
- There is a Facebook page, Twitter account, LinkedIn discussion group and online Nautilus job site to keep up to date.
- We organise Young Maritime Professionals' Forum meetings where you can discuss issues nationally and ask the Union Council to act on them.
- You can subscribe to the Telegraph magazine — full of industry news and jobs, or your college will be supplied with them.

There are many ways to get involved in YOUR Union.

All this and more can be found on our website www.nautilusint.org or email ymp@nautilusint.org. Members can contact our free out of hours helpline, Nautilus 24/7, for support outside of standard UK business hours (Monday to Friday 9am – 5pm).
